

LUC PURSER

Born in New Plymouth and raised in West Otago, Luc has now settled and established a new place to call home in Rolleston, Canterbury. Known for his exuberant personality, dedication and drive, Luc is always ready to take on and overcome any challenges he is faced with.

Growing up on a Dairy Farm combined with years of experience in the building industry, Luc has a wealth of practical, hands-on knowledge which pairs excellently with his ability to problem solve and communicate. Luc has also completed his Real Estate Certification to further develop his knowledge and capabilities in the industry and help him to guide his clients through the legal process associated with purchasing and building a new home. His previous experiences have helped him adapt and adjust into his current role as a New Home Consultant.

Luc's vision is to help as many people, as he possibly can, to achieve their new home dreams. With his outgoing, eccentric and positive nature he is sure to ease any issues that may arise and streamline the process working towards your new home.

If he is not working, Luc enjoys anything sports related especially basketball or rugby. Or you can find him in the ocean swimming, surfing or fishing.

If you have any questions whatsoever, please feel free to contact Luc on his details below:
