

Mike Sanders

Born and raised in Christchurch, Mike has been around Today Homes for his whole life being part of the family.

His strong work ethic and pride for Today Homes go hand in hand with his role as a new home consultant as well as being a director of the company.

Mike is a qualified builder with 11 years' experience on the tools with his background being architecturally designed and residential home construction. This background made it easy for Mike to transition into his role within Today Homes. Mike is a good listener and is great at transferring clients' needs onto paper and new home plans through his practical and friendly nature.

Surrounded and supported by a team of like-minded people, Mike's role is to manage your purchase in the most efficient and stress-free way possible. He will be there to guide you through the process every step of the way.

Outside of work, Mike enjoys playing Golf, Cricket and going Mountain Biking and Dirt Biking.
