

Sarah Colombus

Born and raised in Christchurch her whole life, Sarah can confidently say that she is a local Cantabrian through and through. When you meet with Sarah it will be impossible to not have a smile on your face, with her contagious energy, bright and bubbly personality and immense knowledge in construction, makes the home building process enjoyable and stress free for everyone that deals with her. With over 8 years of experience as a New Home specialist, Sarah is very passionate about helping individuals and families achieve their home goals by turning their dreams into reality. Having personally built three times herself, she genuinely understands the building process and is able to clearly explain to her clients all the steps involved from start to finish. Sarah believes there is no substitute for hard work, and works around the clock to make sure that her clients wants and needs are understood. When she eventually takes a break, Sarah loves spending time with her family at kids sporting events and walking the hills in the Halswell Quarry as often as she can.
