

Alex Bielski

Having moved to Canterbury as a young adult Alex quickly discovered what a promising, vibrant and family friendly location Canterbury is. Now with well-established roots Alex and his family permanently call Canterbury home. Realizing the Kiwi dream of home ownership by building his first home. Alex is dedicated about helping you and your family into their new home. Be it a first home, house and land package, design and build or investment opportunity.

Personally experienced in the building journey as a first home buyer. Alex will help to get you there so that you can begin enjoying all the benefits and stability a brand-new home offers.

Backed by the award winning Today Homes team of builders & designers Alex also has the best mortgage advisors and lawyers on speed dial so that we can turn your home building dream into a reality.

After graduating in Business & Management in Dunedin Alex demonstrated a successful career in retail management before joining the NZ Police to serve the Canterbury community. He is very easy going, organised and committed to his clients.

Alex believes in supporting clients openly, honestly and with the highest degree of integrity at all times while assisting them to reach their property goals.

Outside of work Alex enjoys visiting all the Canterbury parks & playgrounds with his wife and kids while occasionally watching comedies on Netflix.

Let's get you into your new home! Call, txt or email Alex with any questions or to catch up.
